5 The Sesharu memorial Hall is very conveniently situated ~~at~~ till Govt. erects a building of its own to locate the Govt museum & the Sloyd classes it would be difficult to find a more suitable building for these purposes than the Sesharu hall It may perhaps be 3 years before the new High School building, ~~will be ready~~ where it is proposed to provide accommodation for the Govt museum & the Sloyd centre, will be ready The Sesharu Hall may perhaps be rented for a term of 3 years The rent asked for seems to be somewhat too high & a rent of 150 Rs a month may be offered

If the offer is declined it is just possible that Govt will ultimately find itself more or less forced by public opinion to subscribe the funds to complete the building if on the other hand the present offer is accepted Govt will get a fair return for its money and the credit of public spirit

Sir,

I am directed by the Committee of the Sir Sheshadri Iyer Memorial Fund to inform you that at a meeting of the Committee held on the 13th September 1909 the following resolution was passed -

" That in consideration of the Committee being prepared to place at the disposal of Government the two side rooms, which are now occupied by the Bangalore Club, for the use of the Educational Museum, and the Central Hall for the purpose of holding the Sloyd Centre, Government may be requested to take up the building for five years for the above purposes and sanction a rent of Rs 250 a month, this term being fixed with a view to realise a sum of Rs 15,000, which at the lowest estimate is required for corpleting the building "

2 The Committee will be very grateful if Government will be pleased to accede to their wishes expressed in the above resolution and enable them to complete the Memorial of the eminent statesman whose name it bears At present for want of a sum of at least Rs 15,000 the memorial has remained incomplete, and it is not possible to use it as a theatre, lecture hall, or a public library A second appeal was issued to the public for funds but it brought in only an addition of about Rs 1500 to the subscriptions The public having liberally subscribed Rs 76,353 altogether to the fund upto date, there is no hope of getting additional subscriptions from them The favour of an early reply will oblige

the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Dept
Bangalore

SIR,

With reference to your letter No 3156/Edn dt 30th September 1909 enquiring the amount I would recommend as rent for the use of a portion of Memorial Hall in which the Sloyd classes are located, I have the honour to inform you that as it is almost impossible to secure a large enough Hall for the Sloyd Centre at any rent in a convenient part of Bangalore and as it would cost not less than Rs 20,000 to build a hall of the required dimensions, it would not be unfair to estimate the rent of the Hall at from Rs 150 to Rs 200. The whole building of the Memorial Hall has cost 84000 The monthly interest at 5% without any addition for deterioration, upkeep or repairs would be Rs 350

I have the honour to be
